TESTIMONIALS

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

CHAS MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"Inventors cannot employ a person more trustworthy or more capable of securing for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE, late Commissioner of Patents."

BOSTON, October 19 1870

R. H. EDDY, ESQ.—Dear Sir: you procured for me, in 1840, my first patent. Since then you have acted for and advised me in hundreds of cases, and procured many patents, reissues and extensions. I have occasionally employed the best agencies in New York, Philadelphia and Washington but I still give you almost the whole of my business in your line, and advise others to employ you. Yours truly, GEORGE DRAPER.

SURE DEATH

—TO—

Insects of all Kinds,

Is the result of the use of

Dalmatian Insect Powder,

which is SAFE to use and HARMLESS to human life. A few puffs of the dust blown into the air of a room with the doors closed directed towards those parts where flies are congregated, will stupify and kill them in a very short time. Our constantly increasing sales convinces us that a single trial according to directions will establish this fact.

FOREST AND RAINFALL

M. Fautrat, a French naturalist has obtained some valuable results by a four years investigation into the relations between forests and rainfall. He finds that it rains more abundantly over forests than over open ground, especially when trees are in leaf; that the moisture of the air over forests is greater than that over open ground, that the leaves intercept from one third to one half the rainfall, and that the shelter of the trees so restrains evaporation that the earth is moistened four times as much as on open ground. Pine and resinous woods he finds to be particularly powerful in attracting rainfall, and the water collected in a year above the pines was nearly two inches greater than that measured on surrounding open ground. The influence of forests in preventing and ameliorating droughts is thus shown to be very great. Visitors to the White Mountains can hardly have failed to notice that in the thickly wooded regions the brooks and springs run throughout protracted dry spell while in the open tracts they soon become dry. The prevention of evaporation by forests is largely due to the protection from dry winds they afford. A dry wind is a sponge like power of absorbing moisture whereas the direct action of the sun on a calm day has little effect in comparison only the immediate atmosphere receiving moisture, and then being motionless acting like a protecting blanket. Cities and towns should see that the banks of their sources of water supply are well wooded for the protection from drying winds (thus afforded) will save immense quantities of water. The Sudbury basins should be thus guarded. The takers of water from Spot pond are now threatened with a famine but in the future much evaporation might be saved by clothing the surrounding hills now nearly bare with trees. The forest fires that annually devastate hundreds of square miles in this country inflict incalculable injury. They are for the most part the result of carelessness and lax enforcement of the laws. A little watchfulness would prevent the most of them. In the great forests of Europe such calamities are rarely ever occur.

Contrast these two extracts and then draw your own conclusion. From The Columbia (S. C.) Press. The Democrats have obtained control of the State of South Carolina and they intend to retain it at every hazard and in spite of the utmost efforts of local enemies and their Northern allies. From the Democratic National platform: The right to a free ballot is a right preservative of all rights and must and shall be maintained in every part of the United States.

In a recent speech at Staunton, Virginia, in the interest of Democratic harmony Senator Wade Hampton gradually led up to a climax in which he declared: Consider what Lee and Jackson would do were they alive. These are the same principles (for which) they fought ... Remember the men who poured forth their life blood on Virginia's soil and do not abandon them now.

On Sunday night the house of Mr. H. S. McLellan on Gorham street, Saccarappa was burglarized and $? in money and considerable cooked provisions stolen. The thieves entered the house by the way of the cellar and took the money from Mr. McL's clothes that were in the bedroom where he was sleeping.

The verdict of the Democracy upon General Hancock's letter of acceptance seems to be simply that it might have been worse. This is true. Mr English's letter was worse. The party clearly entitled to all the consolation it can derive from this statement.—N. Y. Tribune.

The revenue cutter Corwin which went to the Arctic seas in search of the missing whalers, found that whole settlements of natives had died of starvation. The whalers were not found and no tidings learned of them. They are probably lost.

At a social reunion, a few evenings ago the question was asked "Of what sort of fruit does a quarrelsome man and woman remind you?" The young lady who promptly answered "A prickly pair" got the medal.

An intoxicated fellow in Lewiston attempted to throw a girl off a bridge Sunday evening but was prevented. Another evidence that the city is large enough to be entitled to letter carriers.

ANOTHER DOSE OF LADD.

The Democratic wire-pullers had their machinery so well arranged that the tough dose of Geo. W Ladd's renomination was forced promptly down the throat of the Greenback Convention, but no amount of management could conceal the wry faces and disgust of a large part of the delegates who long ago became heartily sick of Ladd

No such ridiculous performance was ever witnessed in this District before as the appearance of Ladd first in the Democratic Convention to declare his zeal for Democratic principles and his desire for the triumph of Hancock and English, and a little later in the Greenback Convention to attempt to prove that he was not a Democrat and that he had not acted in favor of that party in Congress!

It is not thought strange that so many of his hearers were absolutely disgusted at such a mountebank exhibition, by a man willing to ignore all principle and pretend to be anything for the sake of votes

But through all his hypocrisy the horns and hoofs of Bourbonism would protrude, as when he told his Republican Greenback listeners that the Democracy is their trusty ally and the Republican party the only enemy. Many of these listeners have already learned that such alliance is like that of the wolf with the lamb, and that it ends with the Greenback lamb inside the Democratic wolf

Geo. W Ladd is a Bourbon of Bourbons, and every Greenback Republican who voted for him knows that he crept into the Democratic camp the moment he struck Washington, and has been the supple tool of the Bourbon leaders every moment since.

One fact alone condemns him in the minds of every honest Republican Greenbacker, viz: his persistent votes to starve the Government as a means of compelling the repeal of the United States election laws. Those wise and beneficent laws were enacted by Republican votes and supported heartily by the Republicans who have gone out from us within a few years on currency issues. These Republicans, afterwards Greenbackers, believe in those just laws for protecting the sanctity of the ballot, and they do not believe in the attempt of the Solid Southern Democracy to clutch possession of the Government by striking down in the North the safeguards of the suffrage. Ladd voted early and late to deprive the United States of all power to protect the rights of its citizens at the polls, and he repeatedly voted to refuse to furnish any money to carry on the Government unless the President would consent to the surrender of all the National safeguards placed around the ballot-box That is the salient feature of his Congressional record, and the liberty-loving people of this District have already made up their verdict upon it He will hear it emphatically proclaimed at the polls on e cc tion day.

FUSION COUNTY CONVENTION

So entirely satisfied are the Democrats with the nomination of Ladd, that they met in county convention yesterday afternoon, and remained together just long enough to pass a vote agreeing to swallow any and everything that the Greenbackers might mix in their cups—accepting the nominations of the Greenback convention before they were made—and adjourning almost before the Greenback convention had been called to order. It was blind Fusion faith One of the speakers was bold enough to assert that he didn't like the Greenbackers, but confessed that the Democrats couldn't get along without their assistance The speakers at the Greenback convention paved the way for Democratic absorption by counselling the levelling of the entire Fusion guns upon the Republican party, and that no true Greenbacker could make common cause against the dear, confiding, spotless Democratic party! Those Greenbackers, who are fighting both the old parties, but who have, to say the least, as kindly a regard for the Republican household whose thre hold they have but recently crossed, as for the Democratic party against which their best instincts have been constantly arrayed, were somewhat startled at the strange position in which they found themselves More than one man went home yesterday with the full determination to act with the Fusionists no longer

The scenes in the County Convention, for most of the time was that of a howling mob Controlled mostly by political cast aways, sore-heads and office-seekers, held together by no great principle, it was simply a contest of greedy men for the spoils of office. No party but one composed of the lowest elements could survive the shock of such disgraceful proceedings The State steal was indorsed in all its enormity. The hats of the receiving committee were stuffed with votes for Francis W Hill, of Exeter, because he had the inhuman and unearthly courage last winter to go to Augusta and occupy a seat to which his own brother was elected—the story of Esau and Jacob revived Stephen Jennings was nominated for Senator because in the tearful language of the gushing Levi B Patten he had stood by the conspirators in the darkest hour of their trial "Had all given the righteous cause the same support as Mr Jennings, the legal Legislature would have been in possession of the State House to day and our beloved State would be relieved from the oppression of a once respected court" Joseph L Smith was nominated as candidate for Senator or because he was the figure head of the conspiracy B H Mace, the man whose insults to the court on their grave and solemn opinion should have for ever excluded him from practice at the bar, was placed in a conspicuous position as chairman of the convention In nearly every act was found a direct or quasi endorsement of the State steal The only inconsistent act was the defeat of Wingate L Gibbs of Glenburn, the one man in the State (the venerable Clerk of the House refusing to become party to the conspiracy) who stood boldly before the people of this State, and with the oath of God upon him, called the roll of the House of Representatives based upon certificates to men who were not elected

Let the people of Penobscot county judge, and decide for themselves between the magnificent convention which filled City Hall on Tuesday, and the howling, hungry mob which yesterday disgraced the name of a deliberative assembly.

THE FOURTH MAINE DISTRICT

That zealous and wide awake Democratic organ, the Boston Post, has been looking over the field in Maine and has discovered, what is so obvious to everybody here, that the Bourbon Fusionist, Geo W Ladd, is going to be beaten out of sight in the Fourth Maine District Considering the Post's intense political hostility to Capt Boutelle, the admissions and tenor of its editorial in its issue of Aug. 3, constitute a substantial recognition of coming defeat, coupled with a sharp threat at the "long-haired half-witted" free-lovers and communists who are already perambulating this section. After declaring Ladd's renomination a foregone conclusion, the Post says

Those who suppose, however, that it will be a very easy matter to defeat Capt Boutelle, are mistaken His politics are to our mind, of the worst possible description, but as has been said of one whom he worships, he is no "Archilles skulking in his tent." The young men of his party admire his dash and directness of speech, and the old liners like him better the more they see of him and the oftener they hear him speak In this fight he will have all the financial aid he can ask for, to say nothing of the active and interested support of the best organizer in the Republican ranks in this country. But there are voters enough in the district who do not admire Capt Boutelle's ways and who detest his politics, to handsomely defeat him But is this opposition organized as it should be? The Republicans are organizing clubs all over the district, and are not neglecting Aroostook, the stronghold of the Fusionists. They mean to leave at the polls every man that principle, enthusiasm, money or promises can bring there. On the other hand, if the opponents of the Republican party are properly organizing, the work is being done in so secret a manner that nobody can find it out. The margin is not frightfully large, and this matter of thorough organization should be attended to at once. Then comes another matter. The Republican nominee has trained with what we conceive to be the worst element of the Republican party The record of this element, which is his own, should be thoroughly shown up on the stump, not by long-haired, half-witted upstarts, but by intelligent men in whom the voters will have confidence. When these things are attended to there will be no sort of doubt as to the result of the Fourth Maine District. But the man who expects to defeat Capt. Boutelle by "pointing with pride" to Ladd's majority in 1878, by relying upon headless and tailless managements, and by oft repeating the old story that Boutelle once floored a "nigger" for alleged insubordination on shipboard, should be sent to the rear with the request that he hold his tongue.

The Republican rally at Newport, Monday evening, was one of the grandest demonstrations ever made in that stirring town. The ridiculous besting of gongs by the Fusionists over their capture of two persons hungry for nominations, aroused the sturdy Republicans of Newport to show their colors, and the immense throng at the Republican flag-raising before the heavy shower, gave assurance of a rousing campaign and victory.

ILLEGAL ENLISTMENTS.

WHAT JOSEPH L SMITH THOUGHT OF THE SITUATION LAST WINTER.

Men and Arms Prepared by the Communists for Civil War.

Fogg and Blood for War.

GOOD REASON WHY GOVERNOR DAVIS CALLED OUT THE MILITIA.

On the 19th of March last, the very day of the adjournment of the legislature, Frederic R Guernsey, Reporter of the Boston Herald, was summoned before the committee on Illegal Enlistments. He gave his testimony as follows Mr. L H Hutchinson of Lewiston, chairman of the committee, putting the questions

Q Where do you reside?
A Boston
Q And what is your business?
A Editorial writer and correspondent on the Herald

Q And were you in this State at any time during the early part of the year or the last part of the year 1879?

A Yes, about the last two weeks in January in the city of Augusta representing the Herald

Q Do you know Joseph L Smith of Oldtown?

A Yes, sir

Q. And at the time when you were here did you meet him?

A I met him several times, and obtained interviews with him

Q And at those several times when you met him did you have conversation with him about various matters?

A Yes, sir, regarding the political situation and especially with regard to this enlistment of troops which interested me more than anything else, of course

Q And will you please state the conversation you had with him and the information you derived from him in reference to the enlistment of troops or the use of any force?

A. Yes, I will particularize one special evening, because that was more important than any I think That was the evening, I think of Tuesday, the 27th of January, when the news first came of the decision of the Supreme Court, the second decision I gave Major Smith his first information of this second decision

Q That was really the third decision, the answer to the Fusion Committee, wasn't it?

A Yes perhaps it was. That was the very last decision

Q It was really the third Gov Garcelon had one.

A Oh, yes, I had forgotten that On that evening Major Smith said in substance "Some day the secret history of this thing will come out and it will be seen that I have acted like a conservative man (These are just his words) "Only today I was visited by a delegation from a neighboring county and asked to authorize the bringing of a thousand armed men to this city for the purpose of capturing the State house And this very night (Tuesday the 27th of January) I was labored with by certain men to consent to a plan which hardly could be failed to put us in the State house before Thursday night," the 29th of January, two days later "I refused to entertain the plan Had the Court recognized our government as the legal one I should have taken the necessary steps to enforce its authority" Maj Smith then said that he thought he was entitled to the respect of conservative men, for he had resisted the intense pressure up on him by the radical men of his party, and had been censured by them for the conservative course which he had pursued He also said that he hadn't held back the reckless adventurers whom he named as Fogg and Blood, men who had no stake in the community no property, who were simply adventurers—he spoke of them twice as adventurers—if he hadn't held them back the they would have been civil war He said they were ripe for it. He said they had nothing to lose and every thing to gain

Q And he mentioned Fogg and Blood?

A Yes, he mentioned Fogg and Blood We talked about it, and he said it to me Of course I knew him as an old citizen of Bangor living in Bangor, and he talked rather freely with me about it

Q [By Mr Lord] You had lived in Bangor

A Yes I was born and reared there In previous interviews Maj Smith told me that the Fusionists had several thousand men armed and equipped, who had been enlisted throughout the State and organized into companies And he said that he could throw into Augusta within twenty four hours certainly 2 000 men, provided with ammunition for several days and rations. He also stated he had received tenders of troops from other States amount ing in number from three to five thousand men, and that these men were armed and equipped He would not state definitely what organizations they were. I tried to find out from him whether he meant the 4th Mass Regt which is known as an Irish regiment, but he would not say And I asked him if they were socialists, and he would not commit himself on that point, was rather ambiguous He was especially emphatic when he stated to me the fact that he had been pursuing a conservative policy trying to gain his ends by methods of law, and not by force, but he said there was a large and dangerous faction, characterized them as a dangerous faction in his party, who would be willing to precipitate civil war And as for himself he said he was going home and mind his own business and leave politics That is about in substance what he told me If I amplified it it would not be any more to the point

Q [By Mr Hutchinson] That is the substance you now recollect of what he told you of the matter?

A Yes sir

Q And very much of it is almost in his own words?

A Almost in his own words.

Q. You took it down at the time?

A. Yes, sir, by the way, he authorized me to interview him as much as was necessary, because he wanted to have what he said go out with some authority. That is, he wanted to have one with whom he could talk, and then he would know it would be all right, and I submitted the paper to him most every day, when there was anything in it, and he never found any fault.

Q Did you cause this statement to be published in the Boston Herald?

A Yes, sir

Q Substantially as you have stated it?

A Substantially as I have stated it, almost in the same language.

Q. Did you submit that to him afterwards do you remember?

A Tuesday

Q Did you submit it to him afterward, or did you submit to him what you had written down before it was sent?

A. I didn't submit it to him, but he said he would rely upon me not to misrepresent him, and there never was any question about it.

Q The statement published in the Herald was never mentioned to your knowledge by him?

A No, sir In fact, he suggested to me that I see him perhaps a few months later, when he would have a large amount of documentary evidence, which would go to show that he had resisted the importunities of those fractionists who wished to bring about hostility in the State. He said he could vindicate his own course by the evidence that he had in his possession, he had letters from people offering troops, offering to enlist troops. We had very pleasant chats, and when he left we were on the best of terms. I really think Maj Smith did put his foot down against Fogg and Blood and upon that crowd; because he said to me "you know I have got property and something to risk in this community. I have got a good name, I hope, and considerable property which I have accumulated by my exertions, while these people have nothing." This was his language, "they can leave the State after they have made trouble, but I cannot do it" He was very emphatic in most every interview in stating that he had several thousand men whom he could throw into Augusta within a few hours.

GRAND REPUBLICAN RALLY AT NEWPORT.

Largest and Most Enthusiastic Meeting Ever Held in Town!

In accordance with the announcement in the WHIG last week that there would be a Republican flag raising in Newport, Monday evening, some of the leading Republicans of this place began Monday to make arrangements for unfurling our new and beautiful banner. Before the arrangements were completed, teams loaded with people from the surrounding country came driving into our village by dozens, and soon our streets were thronged and still the human tide came pouring down upon us, till our little town was packed almost to overflowing, all anxious to see the exercises begin.

The Corinna Cornet Band filed in with music playing and colors flying, at the head of the Plymouth Garfield & Davis Club, and a large delegation from that town, and the bands having united at once, escorted the speakers to the lower part of Main Street where the beautiful emblem of our Nation was flung to the breeze, over the heads of one of the largest assemblages that ever came together in Newport, and as it proudly rose and fell upon the evening air, it was greeted again and again by deafening cheers of hundreds for our loyal standard bearers whose names stand boldly out upon its ample folds A shower coming on, the crowd repaired to Meridian Hall which was soon packed to overflowing, seats, aisles, doors windows, all available places were thronged, and hundreds, unable to see or hear, were obliged to return to their homes or stand in the darkness without. The audience was called to order by Henry Marsh, Esq, who called the Rev. David Boyd to the chair, and at whose request prayer was offered by Rev. Mr House, of Corinna.

After a few well chosen and eloquent remarks from Mr Boyd, "Capt. Boutelle, our next Representative to Congress," was presented amid a prolonged outburst of applause, which told more emphatically than words how acceptable he is as our candidate, to the people of western Penobscot After paying a stirring tribute to the "Old Flag," reminding his hearers to what party we owe its safety to day and at what a dreadful cost it was defended, he reviewed the record of the Republican and Democratic parties in an able and masterly manner, and then very effectively presented that issue so much dreaded and so ineffectually avoided by every Fusionist, the State Steal He spoke for nearly two hours, and his remarks called forth great enthusiasm.

Governor Davis was next presented in the midst of a perfect ovation of applause, and though somewhat wearied from long speaking in the afternoon, made a clear, able and convincing argument which held the close attention of our people to the last and called forth frequent bursts of applause. Cheer on cheer was again given with a will and the meeting was adjourned, when a torchlight procession was formed, and accompanied by the two bands marched to the Shaw House, escorting the speakers. Calls were here made for Hon Lewis Barker, who came forward and in a glowing speech of nearly half an hour, denounced the steal and the thieves who perpetrated it, paid splendid and eloquent tributes to our several candidates, and was in turn greeted by the hearty cheers of the large company which now broke up at being nearly midnight

Such a meeting has not been held in Newport since the early days of the Republican party and if the Fusionists thought the Republicans were not aroused this year they have had their conclusions thoroughly confuted by the political tempest which burst over their heads Monday night H

Fellow citizens I cannot look out upon this great audience in Ashtabula county ... so many old faces and old friends without at least making my bow to them and saying goodbye before I go ... hear such a speech as that to which I have just listened without thanking the man who made it and the people who enabled him to make it, for after all no man can make a speech alone. THE FUSIONISTS.

FOUR CONVENTIONS IN ONE DAY.

Democrats Swallow The Greenbackers Without Looking at the Dose.

THE DEMOCRATS ABSORB MOST OF THE OFFICES.

Disgraceful Scenes in the County Convention.

Many of the Greenbackers go Home Disgusted

Greenback District Convention.

The Greenbackers of the Fourth Congressional District met in convention in City Hall, yesterday forenoon at 10 o clock. The convention was called to order by I M Plaisted of Lincoln, chairman of the District Committee He congratulated the Delegates on the large number present It seemed to him a presage of victory, as the people have started this year, and are dead in earnest He proceeded in an attempt to arraign the financial policy of the Republican party The Republicans claim that the people cannot be trusted If not, who can? He said the people are going to march forward to victory this fall

D G Clary of Dixmont, was called to preside He thanked the convention for the honor conferred He was no speaker, and we need no speaking, for we are here for work Next November we shall carry terror to the hearts of our opponents [The Republicans will do their part to administering this terror in September] He was a poor guesser if the candidate to day is not elected by a triumphant majority next November The party of the common people saved the country and they are going to control the country

Col J W Atwell, of Orono, and M A. Walton, of Bangor, were chosen Secretaries

C P Brown of Bangor, was called upon to address the convention He did so and said we are the men of toil, in contradistinction to the bondholders, it is our right to exercise the privilege of suffrage untrammelled We should no more sell our votes than we should barter away the chastity of our wives or our daughters He had no fears of those present selling their votes, but there are those who have been crushed who are liable to Let every man be a missionary He thought he could accomplish more by sitting down and talking with a man, calmly and deliberately, than by making a speech He would never give one cent to buy a voter [Not for anything else whispered a gentleman on the back seats]

A committee was appointed to select a Congressional committee for the ensuing year, and subsequently reported the names of the following gentlemen as that committee

I M Plaisted, H. H Wheeler, John White of Penobscot, I G Parker, of Aroostook, A J Chase, of Piscataquis Report accepted

The committee on credentials reported that 71 towns were represented by 231 delegates

On motion of I R Clark, the temporary organization was made permanent

The following committee on resolutions was appointed F G Parker of Presque Isle, R S Morrison of Bangor, John Rogers of Stetson A. J Chase of Sebec, B H Mace of Bangor

J F Robinson and B H Mace were called for to address the Convention but no response coming from the floor, the chairman relieved the embarrassment of the two gentlemen by remarking that it would be better to attend to business

C P Brown, of Bangor, then arose and said the time had arrived in the stage of proceedings when we should come to the principal business of the convention the nomination of a candidate who shall be our tried and trusted servant in the Forty-Seventh Congress of the United States He was not prepared (drawing several pages of manuscript from his pocket) but was going to act from his own volition He then proceeded to read a brief speech He said we want a man in Congress who understands our rights and business interests Such a man we have in our present able Representative Never for forty years has a man in his brief Congressional career, taken so prominent and commanding position It was his pride and pleasure to present to the convention the name of George W Ladd and he moved that he be renominated by acclamation as our candidate for Representative to Congress

A rising vote was taken and the motion was carried unanimously

On motion of Mr Patten Levi B Patten C P Brown and M M Folsome were appointed a committee to wait upon Mr Ladd inform him of his nomination and request his attendance upon the convention

Mr Ladd was easily found having just came from accepting the Democratic nomination

Mr Ladd appeared, and was quite warmly greeted He said he had not sufficient language to express himself in accepting the nomination. He could best thank them in sober work that should restore our noble State to that position which she once held What has been the result of our action? What has been the progress of our ideas? Why the President and Secretary of Treasury had recommended the destruction of our greenback currency We formed a coalition with the Democrats in Congress, and we dared them to bring in a bill to carry out their ideas And not a yep was heard That was a triumph for Greenbackism. Do not be afraid of Fusion for in that is our strength Some seventy Democrats voted with us in the House of Representatives on the Weaver resolution We have got to assault the bonded debt of the Republican party, which is the Gibraltar of that party. Waste no time on little side issues He attacked the bondholders, whom he said were increasing, and the poor are also increasing

It had been stated that Ladd voted with the Democrats He had When the question came shall our Federal army be used at the polls, I voted with the party who voted to keep the army away from the polls. You felt here in Maine last winter the sting of having the military present at the organization of the legislature You who sent your delegates to the Temperance convention at Augusta and were kicked out by the Sheriff of Kennebec county, know what intimidation is He said he also voted with the Democrats on the Supervisor bill, and if he was proud of anything he was proud of that act The President vetoed the bill but we choked the d——d scoundrels, so they should not get any pay from the Government He then attempted to explain how he could vote to maintain the tariff on pulp, and still hold position with the Democratic party as a free-trader.

He then proceeded to bridge over the chasm between the Democratic and Greenback parties by declaring that the letters of acceptance of Weaver and Hancock were very much alike in many respects We should stand shoulder to shoulder in fighting the common enemy He is not a true Greenbacker who turns his guns upon the Democratic party. We have but one enemy, and that is the Republican party. That represents an Aristocracy, not the true Aristocracy, such as was built up by George the Fourth, but an Aristocracy resting upon bonds He heard Mr. Hale on this platform talking about frauds. He was one of the "visiting statesman" to Florida, and wasn't just the man to talk about fraud or eulogise the court Impliedly Mr Ladd admitted that there had been frauds during the count-out at Augusta, by saying that if anything wrong had been done, it was in following precedents set by the Republican party. He thought that it was unfortunate that the law authorized the court to be consulted on the matter. It is against the spirit of our institutions. The court in this case had assumed powers which he thought did not belong to it However, he was absent at the time, and was not fully familiar with the subject. He closed his speech by remarking that we have severe work on our hands this campaign; but by all means strike at the bonds.

Cheers were then given for Mr Ladd.

At the call of Mr. Plaisted, three cheers were given for J. B. Weaver.

At the call of Mr. Robinson three cheers were given for "the next Governor" If it is Davis, then he may have the benefit of them

Mr Parker, from the committee on Resolutions, then reported as follows

Whereas, The National Greenback party of Maine and of the country has been brought into existence by a betrayal of the trusts committed by the people to the Republican party, and

Whereas, The tendency of wealth is to concentrate power in the hands of a few at the expense of the many, and

Whereas, We view with alarm the disposition and intent of capitalists to deprive the laboring classes of the fruits of their toil through and by means of Republican legislation, therefore

Resolved, That the National Greenbackers of the Fourth District of Maine heartily endorse the platform adopted by our National convention at Chicago and that adopted at our recent State Convention

Resolved That our views and convictions are expressed in the following introduced into Congress by Gen Weaver viz

Resolved That it is the sense of this House that all currency, whether metallic or paper necessary for the use and convenience of the people, should be issued and its value controlled by the Government, and not by or through the bank corporations of the country, and when so issued should be a full legal tender in payment of all debts public and private

Resolved That in the judgment of this House that portion of the interest bearing debt of the United States which shall become redeemable in the year 1881 or prior thereto being in amount $882 000 000 should not be refunded beyond the power of the Government to call in said obligations and pay them at any time, but should be paid as rapidly as possible and according to contract To enable the Government to meet these obligations, the mints of the United States should be operated to their full capacity in the coinage of standard silver dollars and such other coinage as the business interests of the country may require

Resolved, That we heartily endorse our candidates J B Weaver and E M Chambers, our nominees for President and Vice-President, and we commend our gallant General H M Plaisted to the earnest support of every man in the State

Resolved That Hon G W Ladd by his consistent and honorable course in Congress is entitled to our renewed support and we will take good care that he is triumphantly elected in September

The resolutions were adopted and at 12 o clock the convention adjourned sine die

Greenback County Convention.

The Greenbackers of Penobscot county met in convention yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, in City Hall, to nominate candidates for county officers

The convention was called to order by Bertram L Smith chairman of the county committee

Benjamin H Mace of Bangor was called to preside, who made a loud speech, and although he nearly stunned all who were on the platform, he had to pause and ask the audience to remain quiet while he was speaking His speech was simply tin pan and gong music, and awakened not the slightest enthusiasm

I H Jewell, of Hermon, and Luther V Gilmore of Brewer, were appointed secretaries

The following committee was appointed on credentials A W Wetherbee of Lincoln, H A. Pratt of Oldtown, John Fowell of Bangor The committee subsequently reported as follows Whole number of delegates 103 the convention being entitled to 164

The following committee on resolutions was appointed

Powers of Newport Folsome of Oldtown, Jones of Springfield, Cobb of Dexter Patten of Bangor Toothaker of Dumont White of Levant

Mr Folsome, from the committee on resolutions reported as follows

Resolved That this convention reaffirm the resolutions of the National Stated and Congressional convention, as passed by said conventions

Resolved That we pledge our hearty support to the nominees of this convention and will elect them at the polls

These resolutions were adopted

A lull occurring in the proceedings John F Robinson had the opportunity to get off his little speech which had been bottled for some time He pretended it to be a presentation of figures showing that under Fusion rule a saving had been made in the expenses of Penobscot County in one year of about $20 000 The merriment excited by Mr Robinson's extravagant assertions showed that he had gone a-gunning with too big a charge The figures presented are published as a clap trap campaign document, and will hardly be absorbed, even by the average Greenbacker Mr Robinson's figures will be fully ventilated

The presentation of a candidate for Senator was next in order

Frank Hamblin of Oldtown presented the name of Joseph L Smith of Oldtown and moved that he be nominated by acclamation as candidate for Senator Carried without opposition

J F Robinson of Bangor rose to present the name of a man who last winter stood by the side of our noble and heroic little band at Augusta The other day learning that Bunker for want of funds would be obliged to postpone the publication of his Greenback paper the "Pine Tree State" at Fairfield, he sent him a check for $50 He is one of the best workers and most efficient organizers in Penobscot County The name of this gentleman is (here there was a breathless silence) Stephen Jennings of Bangor He moved the nomination be made by acclamation but objection being made, the acclamation portion of the proposition was withdrawn

Mr Levi B Patten, (who according to his own idea of things should have gone to Augusta yesterday, and met with his Union Hall, curb stone legislature, of which he was a bright and shining ornament) seconded the nomination of Mr Jennings He (Patten) had passed through such hours last winter as no man had endured, and had all given the righteous cause the same support as Mr Jennings, the legal legislature would have been in possession of the State House to-day, and our beloved State would be relieved from the oppression of a once respected court.

At this point Bedlam began to be let loose, just the claws and toes, that after wards developed into a full-grown cloven foot Jennings was too much of a Democrat for some of the simon pure Greenbackers, and there was violent talk on every hand, and active canvassing, but at last it was whispered that the Democrats would act ugly unless Jennings was taken, and the excitement temporarily subsided

The balloting then proceeded, not "decently and in order," but without the slightest system or regularity. John Robinson though not on the committee, stood on the stage in front, and his hat was passed about in the crowd. There were several reporters on the stand of differing politics, but they agree in the testimony that they saw handfulls of Jenning's ballots cast into the hat The committee was also made up in Jenning's interest Several gentlemen came forward to vote as the committee were retiring, but Mr Robinson waved them away by remarking, "Never mind gentlemen, we have votes enough now"

The following was the result of the balloting

Whole number of votes,	297
Necessary for a choice,	149
Stephen Jennings,	290
Scattering,	7

And Mr. Jennings was declared the nominee

John Benson, Jr., presented for the next Senator the name of Charles H. Morse of Corinna.

Mr. Haynes of Charleston, presented the name of Francis W Hill.

J. P Chapman of Exeter, seconded the nomination. An attempt had been made in the BANGOR WHIG and other papers to make Mr. Hill infamous This man had made sacrifices for the cause (an allusion probably to stealing his brother's seat), and he must not be set aside.

Mr. Patten presented the name of a man from the rural "deestricts," John White, of Levant.

Mr White declined, saying that if he had every vote, he should not accept the nomination

The scene now was one of great confusion—men were wearing their hats, smoking pipes, and indulging in other little irregularities. Even Ben. Mace, with his big voice like that of a (fallen) arcangel, failed to maintain order, though he shouted, "Take off your hats, gentlemen, and take your seats. This might do for a Chicago convention, but it will never do for a convention in Penobscot county

The result of the balloting was announced as follows

Whole number of votes,	379
Necessary to a choice,	190
Charles H Morse had	47
Francis W Hill	295
John White,	15
Richard Nutter,	23

And Francis W Hill was declared the nominee This, coupled with Jennings, was the second Democratic dose in succession, and it made the Republican Greenbacker's look sick

For the next candidate for Senator the names of Henry C Friend of Etna, Samuel B Thayer of Plymouth and Albert Hall of Hermon were presented The vote stood as follows

Whole number of votes	283
Necessary to a choice	142
Henry C Friend had	232
Samuel B Thayer,	31
Albert Hall,	19

The report was accepted, and Mr Friend was declared to be the nominee.

The chairman announced a committee to receive, sort and count the votes for Judge of Probate but this was emphatically objected to and although the chairman seemed persistent in putting the thing through he was overthrown by an appeal to the convention and a committee was raised from the floor

The following names were presented for a candidate for Judge of Probate Bertram L Smith of Bangor, Elliot Walker of Newport, Daniel Sanborn of Bangor Fred M Laughton of Bangor

Proceeded to ballot with the following result

Whole number of votes,	368
Necessary to a choice	185
Bertram L Smith had	60
Elliot Walker,	210
Daniel Sanborn	71
Fred M Laughton	18

Accepted, and Elliot Walker was declared to be the nominee

Lewis F Stratton of Mattawamkeag, was renominated by acclamation a candidate for Sheriff

O D Chapman of Plymouth, was renominated by acclamation as candidate for County Treasurer

The following names were presented as candidates for County Commissioners

Benj G Brier of Lagrange
Frank D Jenkins of Kenduskeag
Wingate E Gibbs of Glenburn.
E H Burr of Brewer
Edwin R Bean of Corinth
Josiah B Bearce of Eddington.
Henry W Briggs of Hudson
Geo F Hill of East Corinth
Thomas K. Holt of Garland

Balloting proceeded with the following result

Whole number of votes,	239
Necessary to a choice	120
Benj H Brier had,	34
Wingate E Gibbs,	47
Josiah B Bearce,	17
Henry W. Briggs,	74
Geo F Hill	17
Frank D. Jenkens,	37
Scattering,	9

No choice A second vote was taken but there was no choice The third ballot resulted as follows

Whole number of votes,	173
Necessary to a choice	87
Wingate L Gibbs,	33
Henry W. Briggs,	121
Scattering	18

and Henry W Briggs was declared the nominee

This closed the list of nominees, and the fun at once began on the nomination of a County Committee The chairman read the names of a nominating committee but Mr John F Robinson objected, charging that it was a trap sprung upon the convention He wanted a recognition of the men of brains and influence in the party He made insulting remarks in regard to the make up of the committee, but more especially directed to Mr Bertram L Smith chairman

Mr Smith came forward and replied in a pointed and very animated manner as a man would naturally do who had been insulted in a public meeting He said that after the labor of the committee it ill becomes Mr Robinson to cast reflections upon them He tried to do his duty manfully and well He would willingly resign as he didn't care for the burdens of another campaign. We have been assailed by Robinson who says we can't do anything Throw me off, but don't discourage the young men of the party He appealed to the convention in behalf of his friends

Mr Robinson For God Almighty's sake put men of ability on the committee This B L Smith couldn't get us half fare on the railroads for this convention We want more men of ability on the committee

Mr Robinson said to show that he had no intention to insult Mr Smith he would move from the floor that he be nominated as chairman of the committee

Mr Smith said he should refuse any nomination coming from John F. Robinson

Geo W Newcomb, excitedly Robinson has played all day into the hands of the Democrat I thoroughly despise him, and consider him no man

The chairman then persisted in urging his order for the committee upon the convention Gibbs the great parliamentarian wanted to know by what tactics the chairman was managing this case His manner seemed, to strike terror to Mace's stoney heart, and he finally caved and the proposition was laid on the table

On motion of Mr Benson the county committee was then nominated from the floor, as follows

Bertram L Smith Chairman, Bangor
John Benson, Jr , Newport
Lysander McLaughlin, of Levant
Herbert J Banton of Bangor.
John J Temple of Eddington
Hiram W Blake of Langrange.
Wingate E Gibbs of Glenburn.
Llewellyn Lucas

This closed the proceedings of the stormy convention It was 6 o clock before an adjournment was had All the afternoon the Hall was a regular bear garden, the gladiators being office seekers, back biters and rowdies The respectable portion, numbering but a minority, however, were disgusted with the proceedings, and some were free to pronounce that verdict All seemed either to be office-seekers or with axes to grind Even Daniel Sanborn, the editor of the Commercial, was about the hall, distributing votes for himself A drunken man on the platform whose name we suppress on account of his age, frequently participated in the debate, the audience seeming to relish the performance. An honest old farmer on the floor said he had seen double voting, and remarked, in his plain, homespun manner, "Gentlemen, I'm really ashamed of yer" Another farmer said that if meetings like that were the result of Greenbackism, he had done with it Thousands of Garcelon's defences, in pamphlet form, were on the platform for distribution, but found unwilling takers, many remarking, "we have had enough of that trash"

Democratic District Convention.

The Democrats of the Fourth Congressional District met in Convention at the Court House yesterday morning. The Convention was called at nine o'clock, but it was ten when W. T. Pearson, Esq., chairman of the District Committee called it to order. After reading the call, he nominated C. P Roberts, Esq , of Houlton as chairman, and the organization was then completed by the choice of Chas. E Hill, Esq , as Secretary.

G. L. Boynton, of Bangor, then suggested that as the representation was very small, it would be well to omit the regular committee on credentials, as their report would not make a favorable showing on paper. This suggestion was adopted.

The following committee was then adopted to draft a series of resolutions: Nathaniel Wilson, Orono, Wyatt Weed, Veazie; A. M. Robinson, Dover, John Varney, Bangor; F. M. York, Caribou.

A. M. Robinson, of Dover, then presented the name of Hon. G. W. Ladd as a candidate for renomination for Congress from this District, and he was unanimously renominated by a rising vote.

G L Boynton then moved that the old District Committee be elected for another year, and the Convention so voted

While the Committee on Resolutions was out, G L Boynton, Esq , was called upon to address the Convention He eulogized the soldier candidate, denounced the capitalist and expressed his fears that some of our residents might be tempted to sell their votes

The Committee on Resolutions then submitted the following report which was accepted

Resolved, that the Democrats of the Fourth Congressional District, in council assembled, do unanimously and most cordially adopt the platform of principles and the resolutions passed at the great National Democratic Convention, held in Cincinnati in June last, and we congratulate the American people for having presented to them as candidates for their suffrages for President the patriot, statesman and hero Gen W S Hancock and for Vice President, the honorable citizen and eminent statesman, Hon Wm H. English, and we hereby pledge to the utmost of our ability, and our combined efforts to ensure to them the electoral vote of the Pine Tree State

Resolved, that the Hon Geo W Ladd, by his industry and devotion to public business, and the best interests of his constituents, and the marked ability he had displayed during his first term in Congress, has gained our unreserved commendation and support and we unitedly and most cordially commend him to the honest and independent voters of the Fourth Congressional District for re election

A committee of three was then appointed to inform Mr Ladd of his nomination and while they were out the convention was briefly addressed by Nathaniel Wilson, Esq , of Orono

Mr Ladd was received with some applause as he entered the Court House and after thanking the convention he made a few remarks in which he assumed some peculiar positions He said that it had been his pleasure to serve both parties in Congress, and that while there he was treated as courteously by the Democratic party as by the members of the Greenback party with which he affiliated Now it strikes us that he got that word "affiliate" in the wrong place as it is a well known fact that on all measures of importance, Mr Ladd was always found in the Democratic ranks He also said that he would like to have read a portion of Gen Weaver's letter of acceptance if he had it with him, as it was in direct accord with many of the Democratic principles In fact said the speaker he is with us This last remark, of course, referred to the Democratic party, and the Greenbackers can hardly feel pleased at such a disposition of their Presidential candidate

At the close of Mr. Ladd's remarks the convention adjourned

Democratic County Convention.

The Democratic County Convention yesterday afternoon was one of the greatest farces that has taken place in the city of Bangor for a long time The attendance was so meagre that the same rule was adopted in the afternoon as at the convention in the morning namely Omit the regular committee on credentials and let every man present take part in the proceedings

At about two o'clock Ara Warren, Esq , chairman of the County Committee, called the convention to order and nominated H G White Esq , as temporary chairman Mr White stepped forward amid—a breathless silence and accepted the position in a brief speech He remarked in opening we assemble here as Democrats an assurance that was really essential to the occasion as it would have been a difficult matter for a person not familiar with Democratic politics in this section, to have decided just what party this bundle of men represented The speaker then went on to say that last year there was a decided objection to Fusion not because of any fault of the Democrats, but because the Greenbackers assumed such an offensive attitude that his party would not stand it Our relations with the Greenbackers, have not been such as to inspire us with confidence in their leaders, or the principle of their party We don't like them but we can't get along without their assistance They are also dependent upon us, however and must meet us fairly

At the close of Mr White's remarks the organization was perfected by the choice of I P Batchelder as Secretary

Mr Sewell of Oldtown then moved that the convention renominate Lewis F Stratton for Sheriff by acclamation

Mr McCrillis objected to this motion saying that Stratton was a Greenbacker and he believed in letting them make their own nominations The motion was withdrawn

Mr Cummings moved that the convention take a recess for ten minutes

This motion brought Mr Tobin upon his feet with an objection He said that he thought this convention should adopt any and all of the nominations made by the Greenbackers It is, he said a dose that we have got to swallow and it is much better to take it at one huge mouthful, without waiting to know of whom the dose is compounded, than to take it piece meal Take bones and all and pick it at another time

Mr Cushing, of Lee, rather favored the idea of waiting until they heard something from the other convention, but Gen Roberts reminded him that it was dangerous to "swap horses while crossing the stream" We are now crossing the stream said the General

Mr McCrillis then said he rather favored the idea suggested by Mr Tobin That was the only thing for the Democratic party to do Let the other side make the nominations and we will ratify them A proposition has been made that the Greenbackers should take three of the senatorial candidates, leaving the fourth for the Democrats providing, however that the Greenbackers should have the privilege of naming the man Think of that! The Greenback party naming a Democratic candidate It is for that reason that I say let them make their nomination, let this aspirant for senatorial honors, receive his nomination from them, and then he will stand on the same level with them

Gen Roberts thought it was the duty of all to harmonize with the Greenbackers, He said that formerly he hated that party, but now he had sold out to them, bag and baggage, and was ready to do anything to beat the Republicans. The General was very amusing in his remarks and created much laughter

The convention then voted to ratify the nominations made by the Greenbackers and after re-electing the County Committee adjourned without day

THE REGATTA. Owing to the unfavorable weather yesterday the regatta at Winthrop was postponed until to-day, when the programme will be carried out as originally intended. A gun will be fired as a signal for the boats that are to pull in the first race to get in line, and any boat not appearing within five minutes is liable to be disqualified. The first race will be the amateur single scull, second race the professional four-oared race, third, the batteau race; fourth, the Indian canoe race, fifth, the professional single race, sixth, the amateur double race All the above races will be for three miles except the canoe race which will be for one half mile The course has been well looked after Buoys have been placed every half mile and the committee believe that no complaint will be made of this as of former regattas that the course was not well buoyed A special train will be run from Bangor leaving immediately after the departure of the regular morning train and on the return trip leaving the Lake at 6 P M and be due in Bangor at 8 30 Fare for the round trip only $1 25

A FRIGHTFUL RUNAWAY A horse belonging to Mr Billings of Eddington, left standing in front of Mr Farrington's store in Brewer, yesterday forenoon seeing something that frightened him, started for home and had proceeded but a short distance before he left the hind wheels and the body of the carriage he was attached to beside the road, and breaking both shafts cleared himself entirely from the forward wheels for an instant but when the reins left the body of the wagon they caught upon the whiffle tree and then commenced a frantic race The horse quickening his pace at every step and the wheel were flying in every conceivable way—sometimes tumbling over endwise the ... running into the ditch until ... came to the dam when ... he kicked them clear and running into a dooryard was secured, and wonderful as it may seem upon examination he was found to have escaped without a scratch He is a very valuable young horse and the owner was well satisfied that it turned out no worse The distance he ran was about two mile

NOT A SUCCESS After all the talk the grand union meeting that occurred in Norombega Hall last evening fell far short of being a success The attendance was not large there being perhaps between seven and eight hundred persons in the hall and the general effect of the meeting was not what the managers looked for The first speaker, Hon L A Alger of Boston, actually attempted to show that it was the Democratic party that put down the rebellion with a little help to be sure from the Republicans. During the course of his remarks the speaker paid a glowing tribute to the memory of the late President Lincoln, and many were surprised to see such men as G I Boynton G W Ladd and others who ... the ... of war were banging over our country could not find language to express their hatred for Mr Lincoln now leading the applause that greeted the mention of his name Mr Alger wearied the audience so that Gen Nickerson who followed him was obliged to be quite brief in his remarks The St John's Band furnished music for the occasion

The trustees of the State Fair were in session at the DeWitt House Lewiston Tuesday afternoon They visited the ground and made arrangements for locating the offices

Gentlemen —It is with grateful heart that I can recommend the Kidney Wort to any one suffering as I have been from kidney and liver trouble especially the Urine I was taken with the complaint while in the army in 1863, growing worse and finding no relief in the hospital I was discharged from service I sought the best medical advice tried various patent medicines and spent more than five hundred dollars in ... fruitless efforts to obtain relief I continued to grow worse and for about three years no time passed from me except by the use of the catheter For more than two years I was unable to walk and confined to my bed most of the time The pain yea the agony that I endured no pen can describe In this condition, a neighbor urged me to try the Kidney Wort Feeling that it killed me it would prove a merciful relief from suffering I commenced its use and, strange as it may seem after having used about three packages I was relieved of all appearance of the disease and able to attend to my usual work This was a year ago last June and since that time I have had no return of my old complaints URIAL BUNDY
